- 1. Sharing with other institutions, HSMC Members, and Students: This includes the one-time use of images for the purpose of research, exhibition, media presentation, or not-for-profit publication at the discretion of the HSMC Archivist. When used for exhibition, publication or media presentation, copyright notice shall appear within close proximity, to read as follows: "Provided Courtesy of the Historical Society of Mendocino County, Ukiah, CA" unless an alternative notice is provided by the HSMC archivist. One copy of any published work using images provided by the HSMC must be provided free of charge to the HSMC Archive. Note: If the format of the presentation (e. g. video) does not allow for the notice to be placed directly with the protected work, notice, must be provided elsewhere in the presentation.
- 2. Personal: This includes all reproductions that are not for publication, and are based upon a one-time use only. Any subsequent reproduction and or use are by permission only and subject to additional conditions and fees.
- 3. Commercial: Any image(s) used in for-profit publications, business use or on websites are subject to copyright protection, and fees are based on agreed upon usage. Images or reproductions are not to be altered in any way. Rights granted for publication are not exclusive and the HSMC reserves the right to make image(s) available to others. One copy of any published work is to be provided free of charge to the HSMC Archive.
